ANNUAL YACHT CLUB REGATTA

The 19th annual Yacht Club Regatta, held at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club Saturday, July 26th, was the high point of the local sailing season. The colorful affair, in which neighboring yacht clubs participated, included 10 classes, numbering 80 contestants.

The sky was overcast and the southeast winds light (5-10 knots), but sufficient to speed the harborful of varied craft on their assigned courses.

In the three handicap divisions, Gadfly, skippered by Henry White, won on the featured cruising class A race. Commodore Charles Pieper of the host club took the honors in the Cruising Class B division, with Robert Grindrod's Quiver the victor for Cruising Class C.

Cruising Class A boats answered the first starting gun at 1 P.M., sailing a course from the race committee boat, anchored at mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to the flashing white bell in the middle of Buzzards Bay, to West Island Ledge Red Bell 2, to Mattapoisett Neck Black Can 1, and finishing at the race committee boat.

Commodore Pieper, ahead from the start, won by a 10-minute margin over second place Robert Cook's Tara, on corrected time. Myron Lewis' Fuzz II was third.

Class C for non-cruising boats under 19 feet followed a course from the race committee boat to Angelica Point Nun 2, to a marker northeast of Cormorant Rock, to Mattapoisett Ledge Black Can 1, finishing at the race committee boat.

Robert Grindrod, in Quiver, took the win on both elapsed and corrected time. Second place went to Jack Lorraine, in Sissea, who lost on corrected time by 18 seconds. Thomas Hiller's Monsoon came in third.

Ed Brainard's Curlew V from the Beverly Yacht Club won the race for the Bullseyes.

The largest fleet of one-design boats was the Beetle Cats. They raced in two divisions, with Harvey Pentleton of the host club winning the Senior Division and Jimmy Barnes, also of M.Y.C., the Junior Division.

G. Fisher, in a Scorpion, won the race for combined Sailfish, Sunfish and Scorpion class.

Ed Scheu, in Sabre, took the lead at the start and held it to the finish. He was followed by M. Cudahy in Marilee, with M. Collier, in Challenge, third.

The course for the Tempests was from the race committee boat to the flashing white bell in the middle of Buzzards Bay, to Barn Bells Black Can 11 off Aucoot Cove, to Angelica Point Red Nun 2, and finish.

Bourne Knowles, in Naushate, and Rick Foster, in Astarte, were the first over the starting line, but Steve Clarke, in Teapot, gained the lead on the second leg of the race and held it to finish. William Saltonstall, in Williwaw, moved into second place and Van Alan Clark's Thundermug came in third.

one class of Corinthians. They sailed from the committee boat to Mattapoisett Ledge Black Can 1, to the marker located northeast of Carmoront Rock, and back to the Mattapoisett Ledge marker, before finishing at the race committee boat.

Billy Mee, in Irish Eyes, was the leader at the start, with Steve Ruel, in Lulu, second, and Jerry Stratton, in Sophrosyne, third. Stratton dropped out of the race at the end of the second leg, and Lulu forged ahead to register the win. Irish Eyes came in second.

The Corinthians, with working sails only, starting five minutes later from the race committee boat, followed the same markers as the spinnaker Corinthians. Art McLean, in Demo, was the victor, with Commander Eustis of the U. S. Coast Guard Vigilant second and Clark's Instead third.

The course for the Bullseyes started at the race committee boat, going to Nyes Ledge Black Bell 9A, to Angelica Point Red Nun 2, to Nyes Ledge marker, and back to the finish line.

View from the committee boat. Furious activity leads to lull as boats cross the starting line.

Ed Brainard, at the helm of Curlew V, sailed to an easy victory over the second place boat, Mr. Pip, with Henderson Inche as the skipper. Brett Thacher rode his Wild Wave to third place honors.

The Beetle Cat senior division sailed from the race committee boat to Mattapoisett Ledge Black Can 1, to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Barstow Rock Red Nun 6, and finished at the race committee boat.

Con Morgan, in Rebel, was in the lead to the third marker where he fell back to second place, with Sue McGowan, in Hep Cat II, now out front and H. Pentleton, in Swamp Fox, third. On the last leg Ed Cornish, in Barbie Jo II, edged ahead of Swamp Fox. However, McGowan, Morgan and Cornish were disqualified for rounding a marker incorrectly. Thus, the final line-up was: H. Pentleton, first; Bill Darrah in Duke, second; and Charles Crowley in Nuisance, third.

The Juniors went from the start to Gallatin Rock Black Can 3, to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Barstow Red Nun 6, and back to the finish. Jimmy Barnes, sailing Gay-Lee-Ann II, led the fleet of ten Beetle Cats to gain first place. He was closely followed Billy Mee, in Irish Eyes, and Paula Ruel in Lulu, won for the Corinthians.

Sue Whalen's Frolic and Jimmy Barnes' Gay-Lee-Ann II split the honors in the Beetle Cat division.

Barnes' win came in spite of the fact that after being first across the starting line, he was fouled by another boat and forced to make immediate repairs in a broken goose-neck before resuming the race.

Light winds, shifting from east to north provided far from ideal sailing conditions for the last race in the Wednesday Evening Series.

Tempests, nose to nose, cross the line of start of the regatta contest.

The nine-boat fleet of Beetle Cats vied with the uncertain winds, as the first three positions changed hands several times, the main competition being between skippers, John Ross, Brian Roderick, Sue McGowan, and Harvey Pentleton. Finally, at the finish line, Harvey Pentleton's Swamp Fox scored the win, followed by Sue McGowan's Hep Cat II second and Brian Roderick's Pussy Kat third.

also, that they have no authority to approve or disapprove since this is a matter under the authority of the Zoning Board.

Either the Board of Appeals would have to rule on this project or a change in the zone use would have to be approved in Town Metting.

TOWN OFFICES RENOVATED

The Mattapoisett Selectmen's office is now under renovation as a new lower ceiling is being installed and the office walls paneled. The Selectmen have moved to temporary office space while the work proceeds.

JUROR CHOSEN

A Mattapoisett juror was chosen to serve in the Brockton Criminal Session beginning September 2nd at 9 A.M. Joseph Costa of Cathaway Lane will report to Brockton on that date.

Skyscraper?

NOT QUITE

Mr. Osmond Gingras, local real estate dealer, approached Mattapoisett Selectmen at their last meeting to sound out their feelings on a contemplated development of a 2 1/2 story garden apartment house overlooking Mattapoisett harbor.

The Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen told Mr. Gingras that they would have no objection to such a proposal if it met with all of the zoning regulations. They said,

Capeway All Stars

Capeway All-Stars were left far behind in their first game of the Acushnet Tourney at Pope Park, losing 11 to 1 to Greater New Bedford National Division.

Against Freetown in their second attempt, they fought back from a six-run deficit to win 8 to 7, highlighted by a last inning home run by Peter Nelson.

Capeway faces South End Broncos Friday night, August 1st, at 8:00 P.M., under the lights at Pope Park. Let's all get out

Some people are removing our nice street signs. To whom it may concern, will you please expend your energy in other pursuits. We have spent time, money and effort to get these really nice signs up and we do not want to replace them every few weeks.

Crescent Beach Ramblings

The following officers of the Crescent Beach Improvement Association have been elected for this year: Walter Perkins, president; Gerald Manning, vice-president; and Mrs. Barbara King, secretary-treasurer.

Plans are being made for a covered dish supper on August 9th at 6 P.M. in front of Raymond Hall. A representative will call on you for food contributions. There will be a 50¢ donation per person in addition to your food to cover the cost of coffee, milk, etc. For families over six in number the cost will be held at $3.00. For those who are unable to contribute a dish, the donation will be $1.50. So come one, come all. Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Pocheko are in charge.

May we ask that the person who removed our flags kindly return them to me or any officer. My cottage is at the top of Ripple Street, on Cedarcrest Avenue.

We would like to show our appreciation to the ladies of Mattapoisett who have planted and take care of the petunia beds at Pine Island Road and Route 6. It is a joy to behold.

The Junior Group of C.B.I.A. held a meeting on July 27th under the direction of Dr. Cushing and Mr. Egan. The following officers were elected: Leo Cushing, president; Brian Hicks, vice-president; Mary Ann Dooley, secretary; and Deborah Dooley, treasurer. There will be regular meetings each Sunday at 12:00 noon in Raymond Hall.

Plans are being made for a cake sale on August 3rd. The place - at the intersection of Silver Shell Avenue and Angelico Road. Time, after 7:00 Mass. Please bring your cakes and other goodies to Raymond Hall after 7 P.M. August 2nd.

Last year the cakes were sold out very soon after the sale started, and the juniors did a very good job. So, if you feel like baking or giving more than one cake, I'm sure they will appreciate it.

Mr. Willis Brown showed some very lovely slides of his recent trip to Seattle, Washington to us a few evenings ago.

Did you know that he was highly honored on that trip by being placed among the first seven men in the Hall of Fame of the National Academy of Model Aeronautics, of which he was the first president? Congratulations Mr. Brown. 'Til next week - Vic Charman.

mond of Providence. The semi-circular keyboard is the most noticeable feature, with each key and its symbols reproduced in a straight line above--for easier reading, presumably.

The machine has a wooden case with clever hook-locking devices. Instructions on using the machine, pasted inside the cover, are printed in four languages--English, Spanish, French and German; and some of the keys carry symbols and accent marks of the four tongues. In fact, the symbol and motto on the machine show the two hemispheres and the words "For all Nations and all tongues".

There is a link between the typewriter and Mattapoisett. A few weeks ago a gentleman stopped in the village asking for information about the old Hammond houses in the town.

Little League

LITTLE LEAGUE SEASON COMPLETED

Capeway Little League completed its regular season with a great deal of enthusiasm and success under the supervision of Andy Mendes.

The Mattapoisett Jets expansion team, under the able direction of Jim Warren, were the "Cinderella" team of the league, battling the Reds to a second half tie. The veteran Reds beat out the Jets in a 6-2 play-off with John Wing pitching his second no hitter of the season.

After 3 years of play-offs in which they were unsuccessful, the Reds, under the guidance of Carl Nelson and Charlie Crowley, finally emerged with the coveted title of "Champs of the Capeway League". Congratulations!

Grange Fair Preview

This week you may peek into the plans of the annual Grange Fair to be held Saturday, August 23rd.

Anyone may enter their exhibits in this Fair which is held in conjunction with the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture. The more to exhibit constitutes the best success of the Fair.

All products, such as canned goods, field crops, flowers and ornamentals, fruits, and vegetables, must be raised or completed by the exhibitor within the past 12 months. This includes needle work, crafts and hobbies.

Premium list with rules will soon be available. The Fair Committee, with Otto Kellish as chairman, invite you to take part in the Fair. More next week.

August at St. Philip's

The Rev. Craig Biddle III, rector of the Church of the Annunciation, Oradell, New Jersey, will again occupy the pulpit of St. Philip's Church (Episcopal), Mattapoisett for the month of August. He will be accompanied by his family, to all of whom a warm welcome is extended.

Holy Communion will be celebrated every Sunday at 8 A.M. Next Sunday, August 3rd, being the first Sunday of the month, Holy Communion will also be celebrated following the regular service of morning prayer and sermon at 10 o'clock.

Worshippers in all faiths, wishing to attend, are heartily welcome. Voices join in the singing of hymns to the organ music rendered by Mrs. Dorothy Cook, long familiar, at the console of the small instrument. Enthusiastic congregational singing makes up for the absence of a formal choir, and seems to unite the worshippers even more fully. Visiting rectors, sometimes in the congregation, often comment upon this. The fact, also, that this church is only open for the twelve Sundays of the summer season, seems to make every opportunity for worship a rather special one. A company, reluctant to separate, gathers on the small grass plots by the door and seems part of an old-time, traditional, country ritual, at the close of the mid-morning service. The church is located

All You Can Eat

NEW ENGLAND SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER

Home-baked beans, sliced boiled ham, cole slaw, potato salad, brown bread or French bread and home-made cup cakes for dessert with milk or coffee completes a typical New England Saturday night supper. On Saturday, August 2nd, from 5 to 7 P.M., at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall the Church Couples Club will serve such a meal, family style, all you can eat.

This is an annual event and the club's only money making project. Each year has seen an increase in attendance and another large crowd is expected, so tickets should be obtained ahead of time from Mr. and Mrs. Herb Arral, Prospect Road, 758-2009; Tinkham's Pharmacy, the Village Cleaners or Sylvia's Market.

General chairmen this year are the club's presidents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, and assisting them will be Mr. and Mrs. Herb Arral, tickets; Mr. and Mrs. William F. MacLean, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. George

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Arral, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn prepare the bean pots for action at the annual Couples Club bean supper.

HELEN SAWYER & JERRY FARNSWORTH TO OPEN AT MARION GALLERY

On August 1, 1969, the members and friends of the Marion Art Center will have the opportunity to view the works of two of the area's most popular artists. Helen Sawyer and Jerry Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. to friends, are well-known as both artists and teachers. There are several schools and colleges claiming their talents in the east and the south as well. The Farnsworths spend their summers on Cape Cod at North Truro; and winters at their school in Sarasota, Florida.

The gallery is open to the public starting Saturday, August 2nd, from 1 to 5 P.M.

TWO ORRHS BOYS TO COMPETE IN NATION-WIDE TRACK MEET

Peter Trow of Mattapoisett and William Knapton of Marion, both students at Old Rochester Regional High School, will leave Thursday morning for Minneapolis, Minnesota, where they will compete in a nation-wide track meet, representing Massachusetts with 11 other boys. They are the first two boys from the Greater New Bedford area ever to compete in this event.

They placed first in 3 events at the local meet and then went on to the State meet where Peter placed first in the 880 and Bill first in the pole vault. They are being sponsored by the Jaycees.
